

Tugce Akyazi, University of Deusto

Tuğçe Akyazı graduated from Istanbul Technical University as a Metallurgical and Materials engineer in 2008. She has a double degree master of science in Materials Science and Engineering area by the Politecnico di Milano (2008-2010) and the Istanbul Technical University (2011). After having several experiences in industry, she worked as a researcher in the Quantum Devices and Nanophotonics Research Laboratory at the Middle Technical University, Ankara (2014). In 2015 she started her PhD in the University of Navarra working as a researcher in CIC MicroGUNE, Spain working in microtechnology. In April 2015, she became a member of the University of the Basque Country EHU/UPV. She also carried out studies in University of Central Florida/USA as an exchange researcher and defended her PhD thesis in 2017 in San Sebastian/Spain. She has been working as a researcher at the University of Deusto/Bilbao since 2019 specializing on industrial management and organization and skills development.